

I am requesting that Chairman Powell delay the decision on media ownership until more input can be received from the public. If he is unwilling to delay, he should respond to public opinion by voting not to allow more freedom to broadcaster to consolidate their holdings. Chairman Powell is a public servant and his actions will be watched and the administration that appointed him will be judged by his decision. The forces for public interest will not just go away.